ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

The above-named defendant appeared in custody before the undersigned on November 8, 2005, for an initial appearance and arraignment on an indictment.

Assistant United States Attorney Brownlow Marsh was present for the government and Joseph Baker appeared as retained counsel for the defendant

The defendant was brought before this Court on a writ. Counsel for the defendant announced that the defendant would waive a detention hearing. The defendant and his attorney executed a Waiver of Detention Hearing in open court reserving the defendant's right to request a hearing at a later date if his circumstances should change.

Accordingly, the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
